

Portuguese Journal of Nephrology and Hypertension

The Portuguese Journal of Nephrology and Hypertension encourages scientific excellence by awarding prizes to three categories of work published in the Journal and considered the best of the year:

- Best Editorial/Review Article EUR 1,300
- Best Original Article EUR 1,500
- Best Case Report EUR 800

The selection committee is composed of the Journal's Associate Editors, Deputy-Editor and Editor-in-Chief and Diplomas and prizes are awarded at the annual Portuguese Congress of Nephrology.

The prizes' sponsor is AMGEN Portugal, with the sponsor playing no part in the selection process.
